My Life is a Choice

Nearly everything you do in life is a choice. You choose to wake up, take a shower, eat breakfast, brush your hair, get dressed, eat, exercise, raise your hand in class, treat your family and friends a certain way and so on. You make thousands of choices every day! Write down all the choices you have made already today ... starting with the choice to get out of bed!